

Donating Motivators

education programs for in schools and whatnot, then it's also actively restoring	It is important that the organizations share how, what, where and when with the people.	Needs to see tangible results of donation	Needs to see people's reviews before donating	Needs to see how the money is being divided/ what are the operational costs/what is the margin	Nonprofits/ charities needs to touch emotional aspect as well	More motivated to donate when seeing animals in their natural habitat rather than being poached or hunted
Loves to donate to the animal kingdom to fund support for there animals	Loves causes related to earth, nature and animals	It is important to him that he knows the percentage that is going to the actual cause.	Animals can't talk so we have to speak for them	"I can afford to give back now"	Important to understand how we as humans can support animals during a critical inflection period	Need to also be conscious consumers whether it's leather, fur, meat, etc.
Quote "the most important part of conservation is education"	Willing to donate because he knew the money would go to them	disney wildlife gives you the choice of donating	"Keep up the good fight."	Passionate about causes that intertwine medicine + service	Wants all animals to get adopted	important they're fully accredited
Is motivated to continue support because there will always be a need	"I can afford to give a little bit"	"I can't not donate"	Monetary donations are fulfilling because you know you're doing something	Donations gave a sense of satisfaction & fulfillment that you he was trying to help the world	Even a small donation made him feel like he was doing something	A lot of small donations can make an impact
Keeps supporting organizations because animal poaching is still a problem! Needs to keep supporting b/c it's still a problem	Love that feeling when your hard earned money goes to support someone or something	There will always be that need. It will never go away.	Respects animals right to live	Feels good about donating even if not actively thinking about it	"I was putting my money where my mouth was.	That's why like Washington trails Association, because they educate you, they also have built an app for people to follow along and find the trails put the rules in there.
Passionately against wild game hunting in Africa	"I want to help and really admire people trying to make change and I want to do my part"	All organizations need money, but animal organizations probably don't get as much money as other causes	Notices people want their money to go to a specific reason, but general support is really important. Sometimes money goes to employees
